Legal Questions

1. On page 7, it says, "FERPA provides an exemption from the definition of "education records" for personal or "desk drawer" notes made by teachers or administrators, maintained in their sole possession and not accessible or revealed to anyone else other than a substitute." What exactly does this mean?
2. Who is the go to person in a district or school for legal information/advice? Do we look to the district, or the union?
